RESCHEDULED
Shining a Light on RECOVERY
Second Annual Recovery Resource Fair

On Wednesday, Sept. 30, Partnership for a Drug-Free Community will host a Recovery Resource Fair. The original planned date of Sept. 23, had to be rescheduled due to rain.

On Sept. 30, up to 20 area treatment and service providers will be available in one place to answer questions about the different types of services available locally. The event is being held as part of National Recovery Month, which is September.

Mayor Tommy Battle has signed a proclamation stating the city's support for highlighting those who are in substance abuse disease recovery and helping those on the path to recovery and calling upon citizens to observe this year's Recovery Month which has the theme, "Join the Voices of Recovery: Celebrating Connections."

The Recovery Resource Fair will be held from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m. at Partnership's office, located at the One Stop Shop of Community Services, 2201 Clinton Ave. W., at the intersection of Clinton and Seminole Drive. Parking will be available across the street at the Rocket City Credit Union.

Starting at 4:30 p.m., treatment providers will have booths set up outside for safe social distancing with representatives who can answer questions about the types of resources available in the area and how to access services. Attendees are asked to wear face coverings and will have an opportunity to meet Mike Woods, Partnership's Recovery Resource Hub peer support specialist and learn how he helps get willing participants into treatment.

At 6 p.m., Woods will share his personal recovery story. Attendees can also participate in a question and answer session with Woods and a panel made up of the available recovery resource providers.

Following the program, participants will have until 7:30 p.m. to visit the different resource providers for information and guidance. For more information, contact Partnership for a Drug-Free Community at 256-539-7339.
